

~~SECRET~~

23 October 1967

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
SUBJECT : The Strategic Relationship --
US vs. USSR

1. As an outgrowth of our review of the Hyland Panel report, we have prepared a short briefing on the nature of the relationship between the US ability to attack the USSR and the Soviet ability to attack the US.

2. This briefing - which has had staff-level coordination with ONE - comes complete with wide-screen vu-graphs and stereophonic briefer. It takes about 15 minutes to present.

3. It may be useful background for the inevitable kind of conversational tangents that consideration of 11-8 leads to. Would you like to hear the briefing? It may be, after you're heard it, that you would like to have it presented to the DCI, at a morning meeting perhaps.

BRUCE C. CLARKE, Jr.
Director
Strategic Research

Distribution:
Orig. and 1 -- Addressee
2 -- D/OSR

0000000 D/OSR:BCCLARKE:lr/x7111

138860100

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification